de l'Euclos, and Miss Grace Golden, who is improving conspicuously, was pretty and agrecable as a page, perdinand Schuetz probably did his best, too, but he is not destined ever to be a fascinating figure in light opera. The company, as a whole, shows an effort after something better than a few of its late experi-

THE BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA. The interest that the performances of the Boston symphony Orchestra have for the New-York musical ablic was again signified last evening, at their third oncert, by the numbers and character of the andience in Chickering Hall, and the attention and approval which it gave to the evening's music. There was a of the programme, which was fashioned of works in most modern spirit-a spirit with which Mr. gersing his New-York programmes, by presenting for the first time new works that have a claim to serious

The will was executed on June 4, 1885, and there consideration. Of such there were two heard last evening-Mr. E. A. MacDowell's suite, op. 42, April 25, 1888. The executors named in the will and Tschalkowsky's concert fantasia for plane and are chiver E. Coles, a son of the testator's dead brother. orchestra, op. 56. It is a gratification to the pride in American art to record the fact that the young erican's work proved by far more interesting and worthy from a musical point of view than the Russian Offiver E. Coles and William H. Nelson are succeeded reteran's. The suite was first performed at the Worcester Music Festival last September, when its originalty, freshness and geniality were heartily in the codicil, and in the pelition for the probate of seconized. It comprises four movements, each determined the will officer E. Coles is mentioned as one of the recognized. It comprises four movements, each de-toted to picturing some poetical conceit of forest life. music is conceived in a most melodious vein, the chythmic structure being especially captivating, while has shown the greatest ingenuity and knowledge in the application of this true of the last movement, in which a most dainty fancy is coupled with a command of unique effects of of the influence of Mr. MacDowell's master, Josephim Raff, in the general trend of thought and in the work is a most creditable contribution to American art. it was performed with exquisite perfection by the echestra, and every significant bit of color and orchestral device was made to tell to its utmost. Of Tschaikowsky's fantasia much less of praise can be said. It was played with much brilliancy by Mmc. Rive-King, but offered little scope to the artist for anything more than bravura passages of inordinate length and liftle musical significance, most of what the composer had to say, which was little, being given to the orches ra. Weber's "Freischnetz" overture, read in a wonderfully impressive and dramatic manner, and Goldmark's charming "Rustic Wedding" symphony, played with chighful freedom and a wealth of rich color, made up the rest of the programme.

MODJESKA AS MARY STUART.

In the Union Square Theatre Mme, Modjeska imper sonated Mary Stuart. In that character her rare faculty of dramatic expression, not less than her sym pathy, finds a free way, and what she feels she is able to proclaim, and what her imagination has conceived action can fully embody. Mary Stuart, impersonated by her, is an image of despoiled royalty and martyred virtue-and the royalty and virtue are not memly of the crown, but of the soul. The climax of Schiller's play is Mary's defiance of Queen Elizabeth, which bursts from her tortured heart in one irrepressible and tremendous strain of passionate resentmen e. Modjeska is easily peerless at that climax; nor in the pathetic passages of farewell that precede the exeention has she had any rival since the days of Marie Sebach. She touched her audience deeply last night and gained its willing tribute of plaudits and of tears.

THREE CONCERTS

The Manuscript Society will hold one of its private seeings to-night at Mason & Hamlin's Hall, in Fifthare,, which will take the character of a reception to Emma Fames. Several works by native composers will be heard. To morrow evening the Beethoven String Quartet will give its second concert in the Chamber Music Hall. The club will have the assistance of Mme. Helen Hopekirk, planist, and Dr. Carl Martin, basso. The programme will include Bazzini's string quartet, op. 76, in F. flat, and a piano quintet in C minor by Nawratil, op. 17. The American Composers' Choral Association will also give a concert to-morrow evening in Chickering Hall, it being their first one this

DRAMATIC NOTES.

The President of the United States has given a copy of his Speeches to the Arthur Winter Memorial Library, in the Staten Island Academy-an act of kindness which is deeply appreciated.

Miss Sadie Martinot, a performer who might be useful in a stock company, will present herself as a star on February 15, in Philadelphia, with Miss Edith Kenward and others in her company. It is amazing with what persistency and assurance people on the stage will assume positions that the public has never asked them that Edwin Rooth has, practically, retired from the stage, America has no tragedian. Mr. Downing is a commonplace actor, of respectable merit, and that is all. He may be seen this week at the People's Theatre in a translation of Mr. Saumet's play of "The Gladi-

People out of work, and those in search of herpera should consult the many columns of little advertise ments on the ninth page of The Tribune this morning.

A MUSICAL SOCIETY'S CONCERT.

The first subscription concert of the Metropolitan Musi-cal Society for the present year was given at Music Hall last night. The stage was decorated with palms and the last night. The stage was decorated with pass as a singers, numbering about 300, sat on raised seats behind the orchestra. The society was heard in a number of choruses, including "Love and Spring," by Weinzieri!; a 'Patriotic Hymn," by Antonin Dvorak, and in a cantata. "The Inca's Farewell," written and composed by S. G. Pratt. The club was assisted by Mr. de Pachmann, who played several well-known compositions of Chopin and Weber in a manner which delighted the audience. Miss Mary Howe sang Masse's "Air du Rossignol," and was forced to return through the winding avenue of paims to the footlights in unswer to the demands of the audience. organization was assisted by Frederick C. Hilliard Levy, accompanist. The officers of the society are John Parsons, president; Robert Hoe and J. Seaver Page. vice-presidents; F. M. Frebisher, secretary; F. W. Devoe treasurer; William R. Chapman, of Fordham, musical di Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Andre Carnegie, Mrs. H. K. Thurber, Mr. and Mrs. Edmun odin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William A. Topping, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Raymond, the Rev Dr. and Mys. Kitteedge, Dr. and Mrs. Munn, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black and Wush-

NOTES OF THE STAGE Miss Georgia Cayvan writes to the Tribune to say that she was misrepresented in the article which was printed in this paper on Monday last in regard to children on the stage, and had not expressed any such views. The Tribune was Imposed on in this case by an outside contributor. The article was not written by one of its reporters.

A pretty souvenir will be presented at Herrmann's Theatre on Tuesday, January 19, to celebrate the fiftieth performance of "The Junior Partner." It will be a powelain placque with an appropriate en-

Miss Marie Barkany is announced to appear at the Amberg Thenre to-night in "Adrienne Lecouvreur." The condition of W. J. Scanlan, who was placed in the Bloomingdale Asylum last week, is reported to be somewhat improved.

HOTEL MEN TO ENTERTAIN THEMSELVES.

The Hots Association of New-York City will come together at its annual dinner to-morrow evening at Delmonico's, at 7 o'clock. This will be the thirteenth regular celebration of the kind, and a prosperous year's business will be the theme of converse. The brilliant prospects of the future, embracing the Columbian celebration period, do not present a gloomy outlook for New-York City hotel man. The city lost the fair, but she remains the City hotel man. The city lost the tand as the greatest port metropolis, and is on the seaboard, and as the greatest port of entry, the foreign gold cannot escape the purses of the hotel men. The Committee of Arrangements is, E. L. Merrineld, W. D. Garrison, C. N. Vilas, James H. Breslin, N. B. Barry, A. L. Ashman, H. H. Brockway, Charles Sprague, A. W. Foster, F. M. Coleman.

GRAND ARMY OFFICERS INSTALLED.

The new officers of Winfield Scott Hancock Post, G. A. E., were publicly installed at Columbia Hall, at No. 48
E., were publicly installed at Columbia Hall, at No. 48
East Fourteenth-st., last evening. A musical programme had been arranged, and after the exercises the comrades, their wives and daughters and other invited guests sat down to a dinner. There were about 200 persons at the conducted the installation ceremonies. The posts represented at the gathering were the Lafayette, John A. Dix. Sumner and Morgan. The officers of Hancock Post who were installed were: Theodore Korony, commander; W. H. Clarkson, senior vice-commander; Cherles Dickinson, junior viocommander: William T. Converse, officer of the day;

J. H. Weod, officer of the guard; D. A. Rose, quartermater; William T. Salter, adjutant; John T. Logan, makin, and J. W. Waterbury, quartermaster-aergoant.

LARGE PUBLIC BEQUESTS.

THE NEW CATHEDRAL, THE MUSEUM OF ART

AND THE GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY EN. RICHED-A COLLEGE TO BE POUNDED

The will of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Coles, who died at filed for probate in the Surrogate's Office yesterday. The only bequests to others than relatives were $25, more than common attractiveness in the announcement | 000 to the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, $20,000 and the testator's collection of works of art to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, $150,000 and her cotsphisch is in closest sympathy; while he consulted tage and grounds at Newport to establish a school for young men, and $20,000 to the New-York Genealogi-are two codicils dated respectively June 17, 1886, and Alexander; Louis Nelson, a son of the testator's husband's nephew, William H. Xelson; Clifford Hand and Theophylact B. Bleecker. In the second codicil as executors by George Coles, a nephew. All the numerous bequests to oliver E. Coles are also rescinded

The first clause of the will divides considerable relatives. The second clause bequeaths $20,000 to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, in trust, on condition that prehestral color and picturesque device. Especially is it is devoted to the organization and maintenance of some gallery or department of the arts to bear the name of Coles, and to be a memorial to Mrs. Coles's dead son, William F. Coles. For this department all the testator's works of art, such as paintings, statuary. quenthed. She also gives two pairs of soft paste Sevres vases, one by Fuchs, with their antique marble pedestals, a pair of malachite and antique serpentine he has attached a short poem enforcing the character candelabra, and some Roman photographs and basreliefs and engravings.

> Genealogical and Biographical Society. The sum of $50,000 is bequeathed in the fourth clause to be the book, tells of the recording angels of good and evil Nathaniel and William Coles. The codicil rescinds the it ten times, and when an evil deed is done he touches provision by which this share would have gone to the other angel and implores him to leave it un-> at Newport, and the sum of $150,000 are given to of American poets, of the angels of good and Justice Samuel Biatchford, of the United States Supreme evil deeds, of whom the one writes the good in his Court, and William C. Sheffield, of Newport, to hold in book and closes it, while the other writes the evil and trust for the purpose of establishing and maintaining an institution for the education of young men. This institution is to be called Coles College, in memory of the testator's deceased son. This college is to be was the seventy-eighth, which calls God "The Boundwas the seventy-eighth, which was presented yesterday." and after that is done the trustees may transfer it so that they may relieve themselves of further responsibility. This bequest is also on the condition that organized and incorporated by the trustees named, the cottage and grounds at Newport remain unsold and King who saw the act. the cottage and grounds at state of the purposes indicated unincumbered, and devoted to the purposes indicated in the will for the period of at least fifty years from unpublished bit on a little pair of slippers found in a unpublished bit on a little pair of slippers found in a the death of the testator. If for any reason this be-quest should become invalid, or incapable of taking effect, both the money and the property go in fee to the nephews Alexander and George Coles. The testator requests that in such case the nephews will take the mey and property and carry out her wishes as they understand them. She expresses a belief that the will do this.

The executors are empowered in the eighth clause to sell any property in the estate not specifically be-queathed to raise money to pay the bequests made in which near its and held the audience almost breaththe will. The pew in Grace Church is given to the church corporation in the ninth clause. The testator's wearing apparel and household linen are given to the widow of Alexander Coles, and her books in her house are bequeathed to her nephew, Alexander Coles.

are bequeathed to her nephew, Alexander Coles.

Of the residue $50,000, if there is that much left, is to be divided into two equal parts. One part is to be held in trust for the benefit of the sons of the testator's brother. Edward. The other half goes to the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine absolutely. The residue, if any, after these bequests are made, goes to Alexander, George, Nathaniel and William Coles, sons of her dead brother, Alexander. In the first codicil the testator gives to the Metropolitan Mussum of Art a malachite and bronze tablet which came from the Care of Russia as a friendly gift to an American citizen and was afterward purchased by the testator.

In the last clause of the last codicil reference is again made to Oliver E. Coles. After rescinding all bequests to him in the will and naming some one in The residue, if any, after these bequests are made, goes to Alexander, George, Nathaniel and William Coles, sons of her dead brother, Alexander. In the first codicil the testator gives to the Metropolitan Mussum of Art a malachite and bronze tablet which came from the Ctar of Russia as a friendly gift to an American citizen and was afterward purchased by the testator.

In the last clause of the last codicil reference is again made to Oliver E. Coles. After rescinding all bequests to him in the will and naming some one in his place as executor, she expresses the hope that if there is any occasion or opportunity to help Oliver, at any time in the future, the other relatives will extend to him such assistance as he may need.

Fanny Janauschek made her first appearance as an English-speaking actress on October 9, 1867, at the New-York Academy of Music, acting Medea, and she has been acting in English, almost without cessation, for nearly twenty-five years.

Mr. Robert Downing goes about the country advertising himself as "America's tragedian." That is a possession of which America has not yet heard. Now that Edwin Booth has, practically, retired from the stage. America has no trace of the future, the other relatives will extend to him such assistance as he may heed. In the petition seventy relatives are named to whom citations are to be issued. The fact is mentioned there that the address of Oliver E. Coies is unknown. "I can give no exact figures as to the amount of reoperty left by Mrs. Coies," said Clifford A. Hand last evening. "She was not as wealthy a woman as it commonly believed. She had comparatively a small amount of personal property. Her wealth was largely in real estate and it is impossible to place an exact estimate upon it."

ear in real estate and it is impossible to exact estimate upon it."

Is it $2,000,000, as reported?" was asked.

No, such a report is exaggerated. Pe 00,000 would come pearer the truth. I ce the exact amount that the Cathedral of St. Divine will receive. It is impossible to esti-it at present."

"Will it be as much as $75,0001"

"I cannot say explicitly what the amount will be, but I think that it will be more than that."

Mr. Hand declined to say anything about Oliver E. Coles beyond the fact that he was a nephew of Mrs. Coles and when last heard of was in the West.

If you want to buy or sell anything, or find work out a few lines among The Tribune's usements of the people." TO START HILLS ROOM WITH A RUSH.

THE MANHATTAN CLUB WILL GIVE HIM A BIG RECEPTION ON JANUARY 26.

letter was received by the governors of the Manhattan Club yesterday, from Senator David E. Hill, accepting the invitation of the club for a reception to aim and fixing the evening of Tuesday, January 26, as the date when it will be most convenient for him to receive the homage of the Democrats whose names adorn the membership roll. The governors will now go to work and issue invitations to several hundred nagonates of the party to meet Senator Hill at the club on the evening named, to celebrate the transfer of his unscrupulous political methods from the State capital to Washington.

mark Hill's formal entrance upon the field as a candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination. Gov. ernor Flower, who is a member of the club, with his entire staff, will be there to bow before his master and magnify his greatness. All the Democratic State officers magany in and the prominent members of the Legislature of that party will be bidden, as well as well known and influential Hill men throughout the state. Besides the State politicians, National Democrats of note will be brought on from Washington and elsewhere. Senators Gorman, Pugh, Daniel, Brice, Speaker Crisp, if he is able, a half-dozen Democratic Governors of various states, and any quantity of members of Congress will have pressing invitations. Of course, the Tammany delegation at Washington will be on hand in full force. Croker, Grant, Gilloy and all the Tammany home outfit will give willing assistance in whooping up the lith special significance is attached to the omission of the governors to invite ex-President Cleveland. Mr. Cleveland's name has been purposely left off the list.

"It is to be a ripping, roading, out-of-sight' beometer Hill," remarked a governor of the club last night. "Cleveland isn't 'in it."

In the many columns of short advertisements on the ninth page of The Tribane this morning you will find a variety of desirable things mentioned.

AN ALLEGED OFFER FOR ARION

San Francisco, Jan. 12 .- An evening paper says that I. Malcolm Forbes, of Boston, has agreed to pay Senator Stanford $150,000 for Arion, the two-year-old Electioneer colt, who made the world's record of 2:1034 on the Stockton kite track a few months ago.

ENTERTAINING ENGLISH VISITORS

Colonel Cuthbert Larking and Colonel Stracey, of the English Army, intimate friends of Colonel Vivian, and who made the voyage to America to witness the marriage a few days ago of their military associate with Mrs. Mara lew days age to the season of the season o selves the progress which has been made in Chicago in connection with the Columbian Exposition, Mr. Depew and Mr. Vanderbilt extended to them the courtesies of the New-York Central lines to that city. The plans of Colonel Larking and Colonel Stracey contemplated a visit to Washington, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company cheerfully predered them the courtesies of its lines from Chicago to that city. The two Englishmen accepted this attention, and left Chicago yesterday for the National capital, where other social attentions await them.

SIR EDWIN ARNOLD.

MRS. COLE'S WILL FILED FOR PROBATE. THE FIRST READING AT DALY'S THEATRE.

AN AUDIENCE CHARMINGLY ENTERTAINED BY A CIRCULAR ISSUED BY THE NOMINATING COM-THE POET'S WORKS.

It was an unusual feast for poetle intellects that her home, No. 677 Fifth-ave., on December 29, was by the first of Sir Edwin Arnold's readings from his was afforded at Daly's Theatre yesterday morning own works. The andlesce was a good one, though not so large as the entertainment that was offend deserved, and it was notable for close attention and prowell chosen to illustrate the many sides of the poet's thought and to indicate the purpose of his graver writings. Each selection was prefaced by a few words of explanation which often added to its fullness understood.

The first selection was "The Discourse of Buddha. from the last book of "The Light of Asla." While Sir know most advanced place among the religious of the world, impressive manner and gestures, as he recites the fine. noble and the inspiring dectrines, precepts and promises of Enddha enforce again the conviction of his sincere and loving admiration of them that Ialready enforced on all who have read his book. No more admirable selection could have been made by the poet for the introduction to his course of read After this and before continuing his programme, he said that he believed the great religions of the world were not enemies and aliens, but own sisters, each contributing its own idea to the whole, as the color illustration of this he read some short poems from "Pearls of the Faith." The Mahometans, he said. have a resary of ninety-nine bends, representing "the these he read four. One of them was that of the The third clause gives $20,000 to the New York twentieth head, which calls God "The All-Seeing." The poem, as is known to those who are familiar with equally divided between Oliver E. Alexander, George, deeds. When a good deed is done the one angel wiftes Besides the property given in the first written for seven hours, in the hope that the door of it clause, the fifth clause gives $10,000 each to Cecelia may repent in that time. Sir Edwin's doctrine of the Kemp, Julia Balley, Ella Converse and Mary L. Coster, four nieces of her husband.

In the sixth clause the testator's cottage and grounds has been set forth by one of the greatest leaves the book open, that the writing may fade in the light of the sun before it sets. Another of the richest of the "Pearls," which was presented yesterday lessly Indulgent," and tells of the sinful woman whom dog dving from thirst and who was pardoned by the

The more serious poems were relieved by a dainty mummy case, in which there was only a little dust in the place of the mummy. "Queen Arjamund and the Dagger," from "Sa'di in the Garden," followed, and then the simple and beautiful story of the triumph of Love over Death in the little ballad "He and She This was followed again by a delicately humorous de-scription of "The Musmee" of Japan from an unpub-less with interest in its dramatic and poetic conclusion.

In introducing it Sir Edwin explained the character of the people to whom it refers and their attitude of mind whereby they not only do not fear death but cannot

RECEPTION TO THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS

THE RAIN KEPT NO ONE AWAY.

Washington, Jan. 12 (Special).-The President and Mrs. Harrison gave a reception this evening in bonor the Supreme Court, Army and Navy officers and other officials. The invitations included the ladies of other ometais. The invitations included the names of their families, and as most official families have guests at this time, it need hardly be added that the White House held a large company this evening. Besides official people there were many friends in private life asked. The rain, which had been a steady ditarie all asked. The rain, which had been a steady detaile all day, came down in torrents in the evening, but it did not prevent anybody from going to the reception. The remarkable announcement had appeared in print that "the doors of the White House would not be opened until 9 o'clock, the hour for the commencement of the reception." This had the inspiring effect of bringing many people promptly to the doors at 8:20 o'clock. Cardages then rolled into the grounds in only succession, and from that time on grounds in quick succession, and from that time on there was no let up in the line. At 9:30 the line was solld from the White House portico down through the grounds along the avenue, turning the corner into Fifteenth-st, and extending along to the east encance of the Treasury.

Getting into the White House was a slow out once in there was no thought of weather. The beautiful interior was the more attractive by its con trast with the theerless outside. A new departure in floral decorations was made in the East Room. Instead of the usual massive features of tall paim and tropleal foliage, the windows and corners of the room were filled with smaller plants and cut flowers the mantels were banded high with roses, carnationand hyacinths; the chandellers were bung with gar-lands of smilex, and above the wide doorway leading ntend to make it extremely significant. It will into the long corridor were flags and the shield of the United States. The decorations throughout all of the coms were equally beautiful and effective. The President, with Mrs. Harrison on his arm, the way to the Blue Room, followed by Vice-President and Mrs. Morton and the Cabinet officers and their wives, the receiving party being preceded by Colonel Ernst and Lientenant Parker in full uniform. The Pres deng and Mrs. Harrison were looking remarkably well and as fresh as if they had not kept late hours at the Vice-President's party last night. Mrs. Harrison work a gown of striped moire of pale gold and white and diamond ornaments. Mrs. Morton's gown was a deli-cate shade of blue brocade with trimmings of point lace. A necklace of pearls and hair dressed with blue feathers completed her beautiful toilet. Mrs. Elkins oked radiant in a gown of white satin and gold trimmings. Mrs. Miller were a handsome gown of belie-trope faille; Mrs. Wanamaker, a gown of gray brocade; mings. Mrs. Miller were a handsome gown of heliotrope faille; Mrs. Wanamaker, a gown of gray brocade;

Mrs. Noble, black sath and bright flowered talle; Mrs.
Rusk, blue brocade and duchesse.

The diplomats came in from the Red Room and were persented by the secretary of State, the Mexican Miniter as dean leading the Corps. The court uniforms were gorgeous, and meany were flashing with jewelled orders. After the diplomats had been reselved the presentations were made by Colonel Ernst and Lieutenant Parker. Many fine gowns were worn, but there was little chance for them to be seen in the crowded rooms. Senator Stanford's wife wore a beautiful lilae satin gown covered with black thread lace of cabinet fineness. Her Jewels were a necklace of magnificent diamonds. Secretary Bisine promenaded with his daughter-in law, Mrs. Emmons Bisine. Her gown was a white faille with trimmings of clusters of violets. Midama Romero were pink faille and point lace. Lady Pannerfote's gown was black velvet and light flowered brounde. Senator Manderson's wife wore a heautiful gown of black satin brounded with blue forget-me-nots. Mrs. Mrs. Mexce was in white blue forget-me-nots. Mrs. Mrs. Mander with Mrs. Russell Harrison and Mr. Mckee, joined the Blue Room guests.

Many guests went from the White House to the Russian Legation, where the Charge d'Affaires, Mr.
Gregor, gave a musicale and dance in celebration of the Russian New Year. The invitations were verbal, wife receiving the guests.

The New-York Kindergarten Association announces that as more tickets have been sold for Mrs. Wiggins's reading at Mr. Chase's studio for to-night than the room will accommodate, Mr. Chase has offered the use of his room for a repetition of the reading, for those not accommodated; and who will retain their tickets for the following Friday evening. A limited number of additional tickets at $1.50 each will be sold by application by mail to Mrs. George Haven Putnam, No. 245 West Seventy-fifth-8.

MITTEE-MR. BLISS'S STATEMENT

The situation of affairs in the Union League Club regarding the election, which will occur to-morrow of Increased Interest. It is a singular fact that Cornelius N. Bilss, who is made to appear as candidate for president on the second ticket, posted Monday ing, is himself opposed to the methods which have been adopted by his friends. Among the supporters of Mr. Bliss and the so-called "Members' Ticket," there are many who admit that the attempt to "turn Mr. Depew, under the peculiar circum by which his nomination was effected, is hardly fair to that gentleman. Some of these, however, assume to Edwin always points to Christianity as holding the candidate; but these are unable to explain why he should at this particular juncture have himself proposed a change of the rules, whereby the power of appointment of the nominating committee was transferred from the president to the club itself, by direct vote, if he was really, either secretly or openly, a candidate for reelection. This is a stumbling-block to consistency and reason, to overcome which no intellectual stil's have result of their consultations. The committee held many meetings and devoted much time and labor to the delicate and difficult task which the club had imposed upon them. After searching investigation and full discussion of all the candidates proposed, they can confidently vouch for every gentleman named as possessing every qualification for the position to which he has been nominated.

It was conceded by all parties, before the election

the position to which he has been nominated.

Some members have criticised our nomination for president solely on the ground of the number of times he has been elected to the office, though they all admit that he has served the club with ability and distinction. There were several candidates for president before the committee, and each of them had warm and devoted friends among our number. We were unable to agree. The friends of the stronger candidate proposed Mr. Depew as a compromise candidate and in the interest of harmony. This proposition was unanimously accepted. Mr. Depew informed the committee which they tendered him the nomination that he was not a candidate, and had expressed a purpose not to continue any longer in office, but upon our urgent request that, to break the deadlock and promote what we believed in this emergency to be the best interests of the club, he should take the nomination, he accepted. It is but fair to Mr. take the nomination, he accepted. It is but fair to Mr. Depew to say that as soon as he heard that there was any opposition he placed his nomination back in the hands of the committee, which, after deliberation, unanimously resed its former action and continued him at the head of the Mcket.

In view of the criticism which has been passed upon the taket, the committee think it only fair that the members of the club should know the circumstances under which the action of the committee was taken. On behalf of the the action of the committee was taken.

FMERSON FOOTE, Secretary. Here it is plainly declared "the friends of the stronger candidate proposed Mr. Depew as a com-promise candidate and in the interest of harmony. This proposition was unanimously accepted." In other words, he was selected by the unqualified consent, if not the joint intervention, of the rival candidates them-fact that the regular ticket, if defeated at all, can only be defeated by the votes of the 200 Democratic members in a combination, with enough Republicans to secure that result and at a time when these very Republicans are most urgently insisting that the Union Losgue should be made a Republican club. Gossip says that concessions have been made to the anti-Republican element, by the nomination for minor offices of representatives of these factions; but inquiry failed to discover the names of the particular candidates. Then there is another theory put forth. that the influence of Mr. Depew with President Harrison is not, perhaps, as strong as it might be, he cause of his outspoken admiration of Mr. Blaine. It has not been announced, however, that the can-vaes of the entire club membership on this interesting point is completed. After all, the epposition to Mr Depew seems to be chiefly confined, in its most seriou and consistent phase to the simple declaration that " he has had the presidency often enough to satisfy any statement is quite true, but they say that it was not was at an end, and that he was in no sense a candidate. He having, however, consented, in the interest of harmony, to stand as a compromise candidate, these duty of the Irlends of all the candidates whose in were canvassed by the Nondinsting Committee to their votes solidly for him. If it is still urged hir. Depew could have avoided his candidary b positive Irlinsal to run, it is believed by many such action would have resulted in serious discorting the club, and that he would in turn have been event severely criticised for an apparent disregard of such action would have resulted in serious distord in the club, and that he would in turn have been even more severely criticised for an apparent disregard of the wishes of the club itself as voiced manimously through its crossen Nomkrating Committee.

It is not seriously believed, however, that the combination against the regular taket will result in its defeat. All elements concede the influence personal popularity of Mr. Depew. The rival candidates them serves also realize that it is no impairment of their own position and standing in the community to admit that it is well to have a man of National reputation at the head of the Union Learne Club of New Yors; the stronger Republicans recognize the existence of an element in their organization which stands ready to avail itself of any serious lack of general harmony, and it is thought that these more potent influences will be applied to the work of enhancing the welfare of the club by demanding a firm support of the regular ticket.

There has been a good deal of talk about Mr. Bliss's position, and it is well understood by all the members that he is in no sense a candidate. To Colonel strong Mr. Bliss declared that he would not allow his name to be used in connection with the nomination for president, and he authorized Colonel Strong to make this announcement to all inquirers. Mr. Bliss has been ill for six weeks and has left his home only once in that time. If he is well enough to more wevening he will go to the club and vote for Mr. Depew and the rest of the regular ticket.

There is a good deal of talk of dropping Charles Stew, art Smith's name from the list of vice presidents by the opposition party. Mr. Smith seemed to have incurred the ennity of the committee of twenty-five hught that Mr. Smith seemed to have incurred the ennity of the committee of twenty-five hught that Mr. Smith seemed to have incurred the ennity of the committee of twenty-five hught that Mr. Smith seemed to have incurred the ennity of the committee of twenty-five hught that Mr. Smith

IN THE CLUTCHES OF THE SHERIFF.

THEY WERE AT A DINNER, THOUGH, AND NO ONE TRIED TO ESCAPE.

The annual dinner of the First Panci of the Sheriff's Jury took place at Delmonico's last night. Those who have attended a Sheriff's Jury dinner need not be fold that last evening's feast was an occasion of thorough enjoyment. Channes M. Depew was booked to preside, but he sent word that other engagements would prevent his reaching the dinner before 10 o'clock. William H. McElroy was selected to pre-ide until Mr. Depew arrived, and most admirably and gracefully did Mr. McElroy till the bill. Few speeches had been made before Mr. Depew at penred at the hour named. He was greeted with old-time applause, and having been introduced by Ma McElroy in a trief but witty speech, began at once a humorous history of the causes of his detention. "But," he said, "when I selected Mr. McElroy to take my place, I knew what I was about. I always plek out somebody who can do better than I can. (Cheers for Mr. McElroy.) When I came in I asked the foreman of the jury what was going on here. 'Not much,' he answered, 'except that fellow you sent here to take your place; he has been going on all the time." cheers.)

first quarter of a century in the New-York Central Rail-road Company. He was a guest of the first Sheriff's jury dinner twenty-five years ago. He had then been a country lawyer, had held a State office and had been a member of the Legislature, at a time when the peoa member of the Legislature, at a time when the peo-ple elected members of the Legislature. (Shouts of laughter in which the numerous Democrats present joined.) Mr. Depew told about John R. Brady's wonderful speech on that occasion and afterward switched off on to the subject of cranks. "I confess," he said, "that I have grown fired of the pathetic sym-lature of the pathetic sympathy with which cranks are treated. If they were willly railroaded to where they belong and there visited with the treatment they deserve they would soon find it to their advantage to go into some other husiness." (Laughter and cries of "That's so.")

The speakers who preceded and followed Mr. Depen were Mr. McElroy, who opened the evening's enter-tainment in a speech replete with wit, anecdote and reminiscences of the most edifying kind; sheriff Gorman, who welcomed his guests simply and pleasantly; James Freser, who spoke for the panel; ex-Congressman

THE UNION LEAGUECONTEST

John S. Wise, formerly of Virginia; Daniel Dougherty, General Horace Porter, who indulged in one of his inimitable efforts at humor; the Rev. Dr. Twing, of Birooklyn; Francis E. Thurber, District-Attorney James W. Ridgway, of Kings County; the Rev. Dr. Greer and ex-Judge Nonth Davis.
A CIECULAR ISSUED BY THE NOMINATING COMGeorge S. Lespinasse, ex-Commissioner McClave.

Among others present were General Wager Swayne, Surrogatz Ransom, Police Commissioner McClave, George S. Lespinasse, ex.Commissioner Michael Coleman, J. Scaver Page, Francis P. Furnald, Jr., the foreman of the jury Senator Brown, Robert Maclay, H. C. Du Val, Chamberlain Crain, Judge D. F. Daly, Judge Cowing, Jadge Bookstaver, Joel O. Stevens, Commissioner B. F. Martin, Commissioner M. T. Daly, H. H. Hickey, William McCormick, James Flupputick, D. P. Hayes, Justice D. F. McMahou, Register Fluggerald, Corporation Counsel Clark, Police Commissioner Gilroy, John J. Gilroy, Commissioner Brennan, John F. Carroll, Under-sheriff Sexton, Washington E. Coundor, ex-Judge Gedney, W. E. Stillings, John F. Delany and Frank R. Lawrence.

OBITUARY.

THE REV. DR. ORRIN B. JUDD.

The Rev. Dr. Orrin B. Judd died yesterday at his home, 181 Wilsen-t., Brooklyn. He was born in South-ton, Conn., in 1816. At an early age he moved with ington, Conn., in 1816. At an early age he moved with his parents to Fabius, N. Y. He prepared for college in the grammer-school at Humilton, and entered Madison University (now Colgate University) in 1837. He was gradu-From 1849 to 1852 he was paster of the Union Baptist Church of this city. He was one of the editors of "The Examiner and Chronicle" from 1849 to 1856, and from 1852 to 1856 he was engaged as the translator of Matthew for It was conceded by all parties, before the election in December, that both the tickets represented those who favored the election of Cornelius N. Bliss. The nominating committee, headed by Colonel William L. Strong, was elected. The conditions which that committee encountered when their labors were in progress have been briefly but tersely set forth by them in the circular printed below, issued on January 9, and sent to take into consideration "what present duty demanded their hands." They were Spencer H. Cone, Stephen Remington, Hermon J. Eddy, Thomas Armitage, William to the League members:

To the members of the Union League:

The committee which was elected at the last meeting to nominate officers and committees for the club for the ensuing year beg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year beg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year beg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the suing year leg leave to submit the inclosed ticket as the submit the submit to the submit the submit to the submit to take into consideration. On May 27, 1850, twenty-four men met in the parties of william Colgate's house, No. 128 Chambers-st. Submit to take into consideration. On May 27, 1850, twenty-four men met in the partie of william Colgate's house, No. 128 Chamber Sacred Scriptures in all languages throughout the world."

From 1856 to 1864 Dr. Judd was engaged in literary work, and from 1864 to 1866 he was paster of the Wooster Place Baptist Church, New-Haven, Conn. In 1850 he eived an offer of the professorship of Greek at Madison University, but declined to accept it. Since 1878 Dr. Judd had been engaged in educational and literary work in Judd had been engaged in caucatant and the same engaged in Appleton's publishing house. He had published several books and pamphiots, some of which are "Wogmarks to Apostolio Baptlen," "Baptlen in Plain English," "Maclay Memorial," "Review of the American Bible "Maclay Memorial," "Review of the American Bible Union," "Memoirs of the Rev. William Judd." and at the time of his death he had almost completed a book entii."d
"Notes and Observations on Raptist History."

The funeral will be held at 5 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, at his home, the Revs. Dr. Ray, of the Central Paptist Church, and Dr. Darlington, of Christ Church, officiating. The burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, on London, Jan. 12.-A disputch from Blarritz, France, announces the death at that place to day of the Earl of Charlemont. Death resulted from an attack of influenza. James Molyneux Caulfeild, third Earl of Charlement, was born on October 3, 1820. He suceded his uncle on December 26, 1863. He was educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, and in 1856 he educated at Trinity College, Cambridge, and in 1836 he married the Hon. Elizabeth Jane somerville, daughter of Baron Athlanney. She died in 1882, and in 1883 the Earl contracted a second marriage with Anna Lucy, daughter of the Rev. Charles Lambert, who survives him. The Earl's residence was at Roxborough Castle, Moy. County Tyrone, Ireland. He was a member of Brooks's, the Athenaeum and Reformachis in London, and of the Kildars street Cinb. Dublin. He was Lieutenant and Castos Rotalorium of County Tyrone. He was High Sherik of Armagh in 1842 and from 1847 to 1857 was a Liberal Member of Parliament for Armagh.

ANTHONY B. ALLEN.

Anthony B. Allen, a former New-York newspaper man, who had been living a retired life in Plainfield. N. J., for several years, died at his home in that city vesterday morning. For many years Mr. Allen was chief of the editorial staff of "The American Agriculturist." He was ninety-one years old and had been

ALEXANDER TURNBULL.

ALEXANDER TURNBULL.

Alexander Turnbuil died at his home, No. 390 Mount Prospertave., Newark, yesterday, at the age of sixtyeight. He was born in Newark, and made a fortune as a coach manufacturer. He was a director in the Second National Bank of Newark, and was interested in other financial institutions. He was an earnest Republican to rollities. His wife died saveral years age, and he His wife died several years ago, and he leaves a son and a daughter.

Board and rooms, household and other help, and many other destrable things are advertised on the ninth page of The Tribune this morning.

THIRTY NURSES ARE GRADUATED.

EXERCISES OF THE BELLEVUE TRAINING SCHOOL.

The nineteenth annual graduation exercises of the Relievue Training School for Nurses were held last night at the Nurses' Home, No. 426 Past Terenty-sixthet. Same C. Cuyler read the report of the school for the year. Pennis addressed the graduates. He said that the refession was the noblest of all the professions open to woman, with its wonderful opportunities for doing good and ameliorating the condition of suffering humanity.

and ameliorating the condition of sufering humanity.

Mrs. William Preston Griffin presented the badges and diplomas of the graduates. The class this year consisted of thirty members: A. Matthews, Massachusetts; sisted of thirty members: A. Matthews, Massachusetts; L. Love, Ohio; M. Moore, N. Y. W. Schatterer, Germany; E. Underhill, N. Y.; M. McMillan, Wis.; H. Curtis, Mich., K. Alken, Mich.; M. Horrigan, N. Y.; Elin Kraener, Washington, D. C.; M. Middlemiss, Canada; C. Spencer, Canada; H. Macdonald, Canada; Alice Cooper, N. Y.; M. Prial, N. Y.; Anna Kerr, N. Y.; M. J. Hoagland, N. Y.; Kate Shearer, Ala.; L. Baille, Scotland; Alice Relly, N. Y.; M. McLean, N. Y.; M. Tryon, N. Y. M. Van Alen, N. Y.; S. Gaford, Iowa; M. McNair, N. Y.; H. Durfee, N. Y.; May Love, Ohlo; H. Whiton, N. Y.; K. Shugart, N. Y.; E. Gilbland, Kan. The following officers were elected: Mrs. William Pres-

K. Shurart, N. Y.; E. Gilliand, Kan.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. William Preston Griffin, president; Mrs. William H. Osborn, vice-president; Mrs. Theodore Cuyler, secretary; George Montague, of the Twenty-ninth National Bank, treasurer; Mrs. James W. Pinchof, Mrs. Henry A. C. Taylor, Mrs. R. P. Huntington, Mrs. E. B. Custar, Mrs. Caspar Griswold, Mrs. Robert Woodworth, Mrs. James H. Paenedick, Mrs. George Montague, Mrs. Peter Hayden, Mrs. Robert Winthrop, Mrs. E. W. Lambett, Miss Fellows and Miss Cunningham, board of visitors: Miss Agnes S. Brennan, superintendent; Miss M. S. Littlefield, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Lock, matron of Nurses' Home; Drs. Stephen Smith, Edward G. Janeway, Austin Flint, W. Gill, Michigan and Inc F. S. Dennis, committee on examination of Stephen Smill, Edward C. Janeway, Austin Fint, W. Gill Wylle, and De F. S. Dennis, committee on examination of nurses. Among others present were Erastus Wiman, John Kean, John Paton, Morris K. Jesup, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, and Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Csborn.

Amid the cataract of inferior liquors with which the

BOW DEX—
the 73d year of his are
the 73d year of his are
funeral services at his late residence, 362 West 32d-st.
Funeral services at his late residence, 362 West 32d-st.
on Thursday, 12 o'clock, moone itelatives and friends are invited to attend.

BRINCK ERHOFF—On Suyday, January 19, Sgrah M. B., wife of Cornelius W. Brinckerhoff.
Funeral service at her late residence, 341 West 20th-st.,
Thursday, January 14, at 5 p. m.
Thursday, January 14, at 5 p. m. Thursday, January 14, at 5 p. m.

CAMP-Suddenly, at her residence, 138 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, January 9, Reba L., wife of C. B. Camp,
Funeral private, Tucsday, 12th inst., at 2 p. m.
Norwich and Stonington, Conn., papers please copy.
CHAPIN-On January 10, Royal Chapin, in the 39th year of his age.
Funeral in Providence, B. L.

DIED.

CARTER-On Tuesday morning, January 12, 1802, Lucinds Wethereil, widow of the late Dr. Calvin Carter, of Lancaster, Mass., in the 87th year of her age.
Friends are invited to attend the funeral services at the residence of her son Chas. D. Cook, 133 Pacific-4t., Prooklyn, on Wednesday afternoon, the 13th inst., at 6 o'ciock.
Interment at convenience of the family.

CORWIN-Suddenly, on Monday evening, January 11th, 1802, George D. Cerwin, age 25 years.
Interment at Orient, L. I., at the convenience of the family.

DEMAREST-At Newark, N. J., on Sunday, January 10, Mary A, wife of James Demarest, in the 78th year of her age.

Interment private.

EMERY-At the "Rectory." Wolfbere' Junction, N. H.J.
January 9, Grace Campbell, youngest child of the Rev.
William Stanley and Ethel Naunton Emery, age 11 months and 14 days.

Puneral services and committal at the Church of St. John the Eaptist, Wednesday, the 13th of January, at 2 p. m.

PABBRI-At San Remo, on Tuesday, Jan. 12, Cora, daughter of the late Eriesto G. Fabbri. PARGO-On the 12th Inst. Mary, wife of Mortimer Fargo, aged 45 years, 11 months and 12 days.
Friends and reliables of the faulty are respectfully invited to attend the funeral service at the Church of the Holy Communion, Thursday, at 10 30 o'clock a. m. Interment at Woodlawn Cematery.

GOULD-Entered into rest Monday evening, January 11, John M. Gould, in the 76th year of his age. Funeral services from his late residence, 213 Broadway, Paterson, N. J., Thursday, Jan 14, at 2 o'clock p. m. Interment at convenience of the family.

Interment at convenience of the family.

HALL—At Frieburg, in Baden, Louise, last surviving child of Virginia and the rate Basil Hall, in the eighteenth year of her acc.

JUENEAY—On Sunday, January 10, 1892, at Huguenot, S. I., Mary, wife of William Journeay, in the 75th year of her age.

Funeral services at her late residence, Ruguenot, Can Wedneeday, 13th inst. at half-past 1 p. m.

Interment at Moravian Cemetery,

KNOWLTON—Robert Knowlton, at his late residence, 64

Fast 11th-st., on Menday, January 11, 1892, on are rival of 9.01 a. m. train from Grand Central Depot.

LINDLEY—January 11th, Mary Grace, wife of Daniel Actinides.

M. 128 Fast 21st.st., at 10 o clock weshes an actual january 13th.

MERSEREAU—At Sparkill, N. Y. of pseumonis, on Tuesday, January 12. Francis 11. Rodgers, wife of William S. Mersereau, and daugnter of the late Capt. William T. and Almy W. Rodgers.

Funeral services at her late residence on Friday, January 13, at 1 p. m.

Carriages will be in waiting at Sparkill on arrival of the 11.30 train, Northern R. R. of N. J., from Chambers-st., N. Y. Trains return at 2:23 and 3 37.

MOORE—On Monday evening, January 11, 1892, at Garrisons, N. Y. Margaret Philipse Moore, widow of the late William Moore, in the S3d year of her are.

Funeral services will be held at St. Philip's Church in the Highlands, Garrisons-on-the-Hudson, on Thursday, January 14, 2: 1:30 p. m.

Train leaves Grand Central Station at 11:30 s. m.; return from Garrisons at 2:28 and 5:01 p. m.

MOSSMAN—On Jan. 10th, Mary E. Hill, wife of Dr. N. As MOSSMAN-On Jan. 10th, Mary E. Hill, wife of Dr. N. A. Mossman. Mossman.

Short service at residence, 350 Madison-ave., Wednesday at 11 a. m. residence of her mother, South Norwalk, Conn. at 1 30 p. m.

Interment private.

Interment private.

NELSON-At Anawalk. Westchester Co., N. Y., Mondag morning, Jan. 11. M. Angustas Nelson, aged 70 years.

Puneral services from his late home Wednesday, the 18th inst., at 12 o'clock m.

OGDEN-At Orange, N. J., on Monday, Jan. 11, of pueue monla. Harvey S., son of Anna F. and the late Francis I. Oedles. monta, Harvey S., son of Anna J. Ogden.
J. Ogden.
Funeral services from his late residence, No. 1 Essex-ave.,
Funeral services from his late residence, No. 1 Essex-ave.,
Orange, Thursday, 14th inst., on arrival of train leaving
Orange, Thursday, 14th inst., on arrival of train leaving Orange, Thursday, 14th inst., on Arrival Orange, 10. 10 a no.
Fortist of Policy, in the 90th year of his age.

Enddants on Sunday, January 10, Eleanor Gods PRALL-Suddenly, on Sunday, January 10, Eleanor God-win, widow of Abraham Prall, in the 83d year of her win, widow of Abraham Prall, in the 83d year of new age, Funcial at her late residence, 190 Market-st., Paterson, N. J., on Wednesday, January 13, at 2 o'clock, p. m. Burial at convenience of the family. RIDNER-On the 10th inst., Caroline, widow of John P. Ridner.

Ridder. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Martin, 118 West 71st.st., on Wednesday afternoon, the 13th inst., at 3 o'clock. 13th inst., at 3 o'clock.

SPARKS—On Sunday, January 10, 1892, at the Clarendon Hotel, in this city, suddenly, of heart failure, John Sparks, in the 67th year of his age.

Puneral services will be held at the Church of the Incarnation, Madison-ave, and 35th-st., on Wednesday, January 13, at 10 s. m.

Kindly omit flowers.

Andry only on the Church of the Redeemer, at 10.44 Joanna Taylor, daughter of the late Dr. J. Allen Taylor, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Puneral services from the Church of the Redeemer, at 10.44 o clock Wednesday, on arrival of 9 a.m. train from TURNBULL-At his home, Newark, N. J., January 12, 1892, Alexander Turnbull, in the 68th year of his age. Notice of the funeral hereafter.

Special Notices.

A.— By the Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms,

240 5TH AVENUE,

WM. R. NORMAN, AUCTIONEER.

TO MORROW (THURSEAY) AND FRIDAY EVENINGS,

January 14 and 15, at 8 o'clock.

Now on Exhibition from 9 a. m. to 6, and 8 to 10 p. m.

VERY CHOICE PAINTINGS IN OIL EY

DISTINGUISHED FOREIGN AND AMERICAN ARTISTS, Including a few rare examples by old masters TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION, by order of HENRY DE FOREST WEEKES, ESQ., Executor of the estate of the late C. F. Wetmore, to cover advances and charges, AND

BY ORDER OF JAMES S. CALWELL, ESQ., of Baltimore, Maryland, executor of the estate of James Sloan, deceased. TOGETHER WITH

New-York, and a few examples from private individuals Bange & Co..

739 AND 741 BROADWAY,

WILL SELL AT AUCTION FRIDAY, JAN. 15. AT 3 P M., A COLLECTION OF LAW BOOKS, MODERN TEXT BOOKS, DIGESTS, COMMENTARIES, REPORTS, Etc. Crab Apple Bloasoms.

The new Laglish perfune. Tusing like wildfire all over a world. Once tried, always used. Try it!

Established 1875. MRS. MCELRATUS HOME MADE PRESERVED, BRANDIED, CANNED AND SPICED FRUITS AND JEILLES.
P. RE RED CURRANT JELLY A SPECIALTY.
Everthing put up in glass and kept until fall. For prices, reforences, cc., address Mrs. SARAH S. McELRATH, 298 Degrawst, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Postoffice Notice.

Anid the cataract of inferior liquors with which the market is flooded, it becomes a serious question who that market is flooded, it becomes a serious question who that market is flooded, it becomes a serious question who that market is flooded, it becomes a serious question who whicker, which is battled on the distillery premises in pseudiar, squares-shaped bottles, and is noted for its purity, fine quality and natural bouquet. For such a liquid grant of the state of

Religions Notices.

THIRTY-FOURTH STREET REFORMED CHURCH west of Stheve., Rev. Dr. STRYKER, Paster. Special except saturday. Presching an einsting by the Indian evancelist, Rev. F. H. WRIGHT Large meetings. All welcome.